INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL SEMINAR

PROBLEMATICS, TRENDS AND PROSPECTS FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE AND EDUCATION IN THE CONTEXT OF CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL CHALLENGES AND CONFLICTS

The ISPS is a scientific and practical platform organised by the Central Research Institute of the Armed Forces of Ukraine. It is aimed at experience exchange, the development of innovative approaches, and the implementation of advanced technologies in military science and education, with the purpose of enhancing national defence capabilities and adapting to emerging security challenges.

The ISPS brings together military and civilian professionals, academics, lecturers, researchers, as well as representatives of the defence industry and international organisations, to jointly address current challenges, exchange best practices, and develop strategic approaches to personnel training and the modernisation of military education and science in the context of contemporary threats and challenges. The objective of the scientific and practical seminar is to facilitate the exchange of knowledge and ideas concerning the development of military science and education in order to prevent future armed conflicts.

Important Dates

The ISPS will take place on 25 November 2026 in Kyiv, Ukraine.

Submission of presentation abstracts: by 13 November 2026.

Submission of full articles for publication in the international scientific journal “Military Science” (based on seminar presentations): by 5 December 2026.

Notification to authors:

a) regarding acceptance of abstracts – by 21 November 2026; b) regarding acceptance of articles for the Military Science journal – by 20 December 2026.

The relevance of this seminar is driven by the need to adapt to new types of conflicts, the rapid development of technology, the evolving global security environment, and the necessity for international cooperation in these areas. Contemporary hybrid threats require innovative educational methods and strategic planning. The scientific and practical seminar will serve as a platform for experience exchange, the development of new approaches, and enhancing the effectiveness of military education and science.
